

Karatedo Honma Dojo

<http://honmadojo.com/>

58 East 11st Street 5th Floor
(btw Broadway + University Pl)

*Should Climb Stairs

- Recommended participation from age 9 and up.
- First come first serve up to 50 participants.
- We will ask you to remove your shoes in the “dojo” out of respect.
- Raffle: There will be a chance to win Koda Farm Organic Rice!
- You will have the opportunity to purchase Koda Farm Organic White/Brown Rice at the event.
- Movie trailer and more information available at: <http://www.seedfilm.life/>

This documentary takes place at Koda Farm in California. The Koda family is a Japanese-American family, which has been running this rice harvesting farm across 3 generations.

Over the course of 85 years, this family has lived through World War 2, forced relocation into internment camps, and loss of assets, but has been able to rebuild the business into what it is today.

This is their story.

Saturday March 12th

3:00 pm OPEN

3:20-5:00 pm SCREENING

5:00-6:00 pm TASTING & DEBATE

6:00 pm CLOSE

Pre-registration required!

- Register for this event from NY Nojo website (www.japanese-nynojo.com), “Seed Movie Viewing Event” page.
- Event fee: $20 ($10 for children under 15 years)
- Drink and “mitarashi dango” (rice cake with sweet soy sauce) included.
- Viewing fee free.
- Payment accepted via Paypal or credit card.

Inquires

NY Nojo (Todo) 516-769-1683

ZENSHOW JYUKU (Asae) 646-796-8476

seed

The Life of the Rice King and his Kin